History of the Purdue Black Faculty-Staff Caucus

In September 1974 Sam Day, Director of African Studies and Faculty and Staff Caucus. At the September meeting of interested black faculty and staff, the response was positive, and it was decided that meetings would be held to discuss the caucus and its purpose. The caucus was established in November, December, and January, during the month of the caucus. The caucus was established in November, December, and January, during the month of the caucus. Office of the President

April 2020

To each of our student honorees,

It is my sincere pleasure to congratulate you, on behalf of the entire Boilermaker community, on the outstanding success for which you are being recognized. This is such an important annual celebration, now in its 45th year, that I know represents many months and years of hard work, dedication and commitment to making a positive difference in your community. I regret that we are not able to acknowledge your many achievements in person.

Although the circumstances are far from ordinary this year, know that my admiration of your accomplishments and your commitment to excellence remain unchanged. You exemplify what it means to be a Boilermaker through your leadership, tenacity and persistent pursuit of excellence, both in and out of the classroom.

Thanks are also in order for your family and friends, who celebrate your achievements each day and for the members of our Black Caucus of Faculty and Staff, who support and encourage you. They are an essential part of the Purdue family and we thank each of them for their hard work and devotion to your success.

This yearly event shines a well-deserved spotlight on the many ways in which you go above and beyond in all aspects of your life. I hope you know what an important part of our campus you are. Wherever you are celebrating from: You make Purdue proud.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Mitch', written in a cursive style.

Mitchell E. Daniels, Jr.
President

April 2020

Dear Student Honorees, Families, Friends, and Colleagues,

It is a privilege to welcome you to the 45th Annual Purdue Black Caucus of Faculty and Staff Academic and Service Awards — where we continue a proud tradition of honoring students who have demonstrated exceptional academic and service leadership. While we can't celebrate in person this year due to the COVID-19 public health crisis, this celebration is no less important and remains a tribute to our brilliant faculty, our devoted staff, and most importantly, to our dedicated and hard-working students.

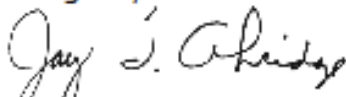

To our graduating seniors: Every year, hundreds of industry recruiters and graduate schools come to Purdue because they know they will find students who have a strong academic foundation, the professional skills to become leaders, and the integrity and compassion that embody the Boilermaker spirit. Each one we honor this year will make an important difference in the communities, organizations and corporations of this country ... there is no doubt in my mind. While I know finishing your semester through remote learning was not the way you wanted to complete your final year at Purdue, you persevered through the challenges in front of you and you made it! We wish you continued happiness and great success whether you are seeking employment or furthering your education through an advanced degree.

To the parents, family and friends of our honorees: We know you have provided significant support helping your students navigate their path through Purdue and through life. We thank you for entrusting us with the care of your sons and daughters. We have done our best to provide them with opportunities to grow — as scholars, as team members, as leaders, and as people. They have done the hard work and with your guidance, they have thrived. You have so very much to be proud of.

I also want to thank the Black Caucus of Faculty and Staff at Purdue. As teachers, mentors, advisors and leaders, you are helping talented students build successful lives.

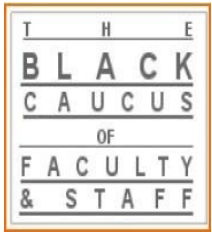

Congratulations to our honorees. You have earned this special recognition and I hope you enjoy every moment. We are so proud to call you Boilermakers, and we look forward to your continued success as you meet the future with enthusiasm.

Best regards,

Jay T. Akridge

Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs and Diversity

Purdue Black Caucus of Faculty and Staff

April 18, 2020

Dear Students, Colleagues, Friends, and Honored Guests,

I greet you with a combination of enthusiasm for the accomplishments our students have garnered and sadness that, for the first time in 45 years, we will miss seeing your beaming faces and exuberant celebrations in person. By now, you're all aware how the stay-at-home and shelter-in-place orders impacting our nation have shuttered award programs and commencement activities across the country. We know this is the best strategy to slow the collateral land devastation made possible by Covid-19. And yet, it is still the case that we would have chosen to be together rather than apart, given our own inclination.

We, the Purdue Black Caucus of Faculty and Staff, extend our heartiest greetings and welcome to our re-imagined, 45th Annual Academic and Service Award Celebration. Our research suggests this program is one of the largest of its kind anywhere in the country. We know this event to be the largest University-wide, trans-disciplinary annual awards program that is planned and executed solely by faculty, staff, and volunteer contributions. We are in the privileged position of honoring almost 200 students for their academic excellence, extraordinary service, and exceptional leadership. All honorees, in one way or many, have thrived in this place we call our academic home, sometimes because of and other times in spite of...but thrive they have and will.

A special thank you for your tangible and intangible support of your students, our outstanding honorees. The Academic and Service Awards Program is the Caucus' signature event, made possible by the many contributions, both in-kind and monetary, from faculty, staff, university administration, parents, and friends. Your support shows up vividly in your ads for this interactive program and brochure and we invite you to support our university, businesses, and contributors that made this celebration possible.

It is our fervent desire that you experience the joy and pride in seeing your students' efforts realized in the re-imagined awards program you'll find between the covers of this brochure. We certainly have. And please, please encourage your returning students to reach out to any one of our Purdue Black Caucus of Faculty and Staff employees. The empirical research evidence for your student reaching out to us is strong and clear, particularly for first-generation students and students of color. "Indeed, no other factor plays as strong a role for students of color" who note "faculty interactions encourage them to engage more with learning, try harder, and meet high academic expectations" (Kezar & Maxey, 2014, p. 32). Decreased dropout rates and persistence toward degree completion are among the strongest outcomes of faculty-student interaction (Kezar & Maxey, 2014).

Hail Purdue!

All my best,

Dr. Sandra Sydnor, Chair

Purdue Black Caucus of Faculty and Staff

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Mr. Taylor graduated from Purdue University with a BS in Accounting with Distinction. He is a strong advocate of improving education for minorities and enjoys speaking to students about maximizing opportunities regardless of their surroundings. In 2012 he was awarded the Entrepreneur of the Year Award from Purdue's Krannert School of Management and was the Commencement Speaker for the 226th Purdue University Graduation in August 2015. He remains committed to his alma mater and is Member of the Dean's Advisory Council for the Krannert School of Management.

In 1996, Shawn started his own company, Family EATs Limited Partnership (FELP), and became a Taco Bell franchisee where he acquired, owned, developed, and operated as many as 33 Taco Bell locations in the Houston market. FELP became the largest African-American owned Taco Bell franchise with sales approaching $30 million and over 500 employees. In 2002, Shawn guided the organization through a financial restructuring process as a result of adverse brand-wide negative publicity that reduced year over year sales 25%, and led the successful turnaround of the business. From 2003 to 2006, FELP's revamped team achieved significant/break-through results without the addition of new restaurants. He increased year over year sales and profitability by 28% and 48% respectively, exceeded all debt covenants annually, and reduced employee turnover while increasing all guest metrics.

After successfully selling FELP in 2007 to take advantage of the demand for Taco Bell franchises, Shawn invested his time in non-profit organizations. In 2011, he became a strategic advisor to Houston Baseball Partners, LLC during their acquisition of the Houston Astros Major League Baseball team and helped with the rebranding of the franchise along with successfully rebuilding relationships with community leaders. Shawn subsequently became a limited partner in the Astros' baseball organization, currently serves on the Board of Trustees for the Astros Foundation, and is the chairman of the Annual Astros Golf Classic. In early 2013, he became a franchisee with Zaxby's Franchise, LLC, and is currently the President and CEO of Zaxby's Houston, LLC, a multi-unit restaurant franchise. Shawn initially led the acquisition of 3 locations in the Houston market, subsequently identified numerous strategic growth opportunities, and negotiated the largest development agreement in the Franchisor's 25 year history to build 35 new locations in the Houston market.

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

The Star Spangled Banner

By Francis Scott Key

Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light,

What so proudly we hailed

At the twilight's last gleaming?

Whose broad stripes and bright stars,

Through the perilous fight,

O'er the ramparts we watched,

Were so gallantly streaming?

And the rockets' red glare,

The bombs bursting in air

Gave proof through the night

That our flag was still there.

O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave

O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

THE NEGRO NATIONAL ANTHEM

Lift Every Voice and Sing

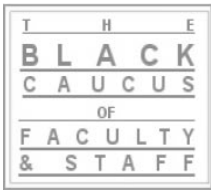

By James Weldon Johnson

Lift ev'ry voice and sing,
Till earth and heaven ring,
Ring with the harmonies of Liberty;
Let our rejoicing rise
High as the list'ning skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us,
Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us;
Facing the rising sun of our new day begun,
Let us march on till victory is won.

Stony the road we trod,
Bitter the chast'ning rod,
Felt in the days when hope unborn had died;
Yet with a steady beat,
Have not our weary feet
Come to the place for which our fathers sighed?
We have come over a way that with tears has been watered.
We have come, treading our path through the blood of the slaughtered,
Out from the gloomy past,
Till now we stand at last
Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.

God of our weary years,
God of our silent tears,
Thou who hast brought us thus far on the way;
Thou who hast by Thy might,
Led us into the light,
Keep us forever in the path, we pray.
Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee,
Lest our hearts, drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee;
Shadowed beneath Thy hand,
May we forever stand,
True to our God,
True to our native land.

The Black Caucus

The Caucus traces its roots to discussions and informal meetings among African American faculty and staff on the Purdue University West Lafayette campus in the Fall of 1970. The concept for an organized group of Black faculty and staff initially was circulated by Dr. Buchanan, who held the position of Coordinator of Black Student Programs at the time. These discussions continued over the next few years until September, 1974, when faculty and staff members responded positively to a proposal from Mr. Sam Hay, Director of Africana Studies and Research Center, to develop a more formal organizational structure. An ad hoc leadership group began planning for the goal with monthly meetings at the old Black Cultural Center.

Under a constitution ratified in December 1974, African American faculty and staff members voted on April 17, 1975 to establish the Black Faculty and Staff Council of Purdue University, and elected as its first officers Dr. Luther Williams (Chairperson), Ms. Marion Blalock (Vice Chairperson), Dr. Darlene [Clark-] Hine (Recording Secretary–Treasurer), Mrs. Helen Bass Williams (Corresponding Secretary), Mr. Kenneth McNight (Parliamentarian), Capt. Jerome Adams, Mr. Samuel Hay, and Ms. Phoebe Coleman (Members-at-Large). Purdue President Arthur G. Hansen was duly notified later that month. By the Spring of 1976, the organization became known as the Black Caucus of Faculty and Staff.

The basic purpose, goals, and objectives of the Caucus have remained consistent across the life of the organization, and are articulated most clearly in its Constitution and Bylaws (1984):

“The purpose of the Purdue Black Caucus of Faculty and Staff shall be:

- (a) To identify and act upon those issues which affect Black people at Purdue University and the greater Lafayette community, especially as they relate to the function of the University;
- (b) To institute and maintain an effective and positive relationship between the University and its Black constituency both on and off campus;
- (c) To reinforce self-awareness among Black people by implementing programs and activities designed to achieve these aims;
- (d) To gather and disseminate information about available talent, opportunities, and activities that will provide the University with a comprehensive understanding of the dynamics of the Black experience;
- (e) To carry out other activities of a charitable and educational nature to promote the welfare of Black faculty, staff, and students.”

From its earliest years, the Caucus undertook monitoring the number and status of African American staff and students at Purdue, providing mutual support, and engaging upper administration in planning for change and advancement on matters of concern. One important, visible, and consistent function has been the Annual Awards Program. Initially begun as an “Academic Support Fund Dance” that raised money for academic merit awards and a possible emergency loan fund, the Caucus distributed 30 “incentive awards” to Black students for the end of the 1975-76 academic year. The Second Annual Academic Support Fund Dance honored 60 outstanding Purdue Undergraduates with cash awards, gifts, and certificated for excellence in scholarship, community service, and leadership. Continuing its tradition of honoring students using only voluntary donations, this 41st Annual Program will honor over 150 undergraduates of African descent at Purdue University.
